

RCBC Net Income at P3.2 billion for the first nine months of 2018

Core Income up 42% vs. same period last year

Rizal Commercial Banking Corporation posted a consolidated Net Income of P3.2 billion for the nine months ended September 2018.

Excluding non-recurring income (trading gains), core income grew 42% compared to last year coming from stronger core business led by double-digit growth in Net Interest Income by 12% and in Fee-based Income by 15%. The Bank's combined net interest income and fee-based income now comprise 91% of gross income.

Net Interest Income reached P14.7 billion with 12% growth year-on-year. The Bank's loan growth remained strong across all segments expanding by 12% to P379 billion. All market segments sustained their growth. Average loan volume of the corporate segment grew by 9%, SME segment by 32%, Consumer segment by 33% with growth in Credit Card Receivables by 33%. Rizal MicroBank (RMB), the Microfinance arm of the Bank that provides financing requirements for micro and small enterprises, increased its average loan portfolio by 20% year on year, through continuous efforts to enhance its current loan products responsive to the needs of its mandated market segments.

Despite the sustained growth momentum in loans, the Bank's asset quality remained well-managed with consolidated NPL Ratios of 1.22%, better than the 1.41% in the same period last year. NPL coverage improved to 96.94% from previous year's 77.39% at the consolidated level, and a healthier 141.84% at the parent bank level.

Gross Income reached P19.4 billion with total Other Operating Income reaching P 4.7 billion or 24% of gross income. Fee-based Income, which includes card related fees - both credit and debit cards, Trust fees, and Fees on investment banking and loans, accounted for 15% of Gross Income.

Total Operating Expenses amounted to P14.4 billion for the first nine months of 2018 with the continued expansion in branch and distribution network as well as higher documentary stamp taxes (DST). The Bank's branch network grew to 509 branches as of end-September 2018 from 503 as of end-September 2017 while, ATMs increased to 1,593 as of end-September 2018 compared to 1,539 as of end-September 2017. This resulted to a 3.13 branch-to-ATM ratio, one of the highest in the industry.

Total Consolidated Resources expanded by 17% to P614.4 billion. Total Deposits grew by 10% or P35.6 billion year-on-year to P410.1 billion. CASA grew by P12.6 billion year-on-year to P231.8 billion as of end-September 2018. The Bank's Capital position at P83.6 billion remained robust and well above the minimum regulatory requirement with a CAR of 17.28% and CET1 Ratio of 14.45%.

“Steadily, RCBC has sustained its core business posting healthy growth in core income despite macro challenges. We are focused on the SME market as part of our strategy to diversify our loan portfolio. We are very proud of the recognition given to us as the Best Bank for SME by AsiaMoney. This further reinforces our thrust to be the banking partner of choice for our small and medium enterprise clients”, said Gil A. Buenaventura, RCBC President and CEO.
