Hexagon Club Family
Supplemental Terms and Conditions

1. These Supplemental Terms and Conditions (“Supplemental T&Cs”) form part of the Hexagon Club Terms and Conditions (“Main T&Cs”) and apply exclusively to clients subscribed to and nominated under the Hexagon Club Family program. In the event of any inconsistency between these Supplemental T&Cs and the Main T&Cs, the provisions of the Main T&Cs shall prevail.
2. Subscription to Hexagon Club Family is optional and is available to Hexagon Club Privilege or Priority clients (“Primary Member”). To qualify for and maintain this subscription, the Primary Member must maintain a minimum aggregate checking and savings account/s Average Daily Balance (“CASA ADB”) of Php 500,000, or such amount as RCBC may prescribe, for as long as family members remain nominated and maintain active CASA with the Bank. The Primary Member acknowledges and accepts sole responsibility for maintaining the required ADB and continued compliance with all program eligibility criteria.
3. The Primary Member may nominate up to four (4) immediate family members (“Supplementary Members”) for inclusion in the program. Eligible Supplementary Members must be immediate family, specifically defined as parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, spouse/partner, or siblings. Supplementary Members must maintain at least one (1) active CASA (Current or Savings Account) with RCBC. For individuals who are new-to-bank, the account opening process must be fully completed before a nomination can be processed.
4. Subscription to the Hexagon Club Family program neither creates nor implies a joint account, co-ownership, partnership, agency, fiduciary relationship, or mutual liability among the members. Each member retains full and independent ownership, control, and responsibility over their respective accounts and obligations with RCBC.
5. Nomination of eligible Supplementary Members is initiated by the Primary Member as part of program enrollment. The Primary Member represents and warrants that the Supplementary Member/s nominated under Hexagon Club Family has/have been informed of such nomination and provided explicit consent thereto, without need of executing additional documents.

6. The Primary Member represents and warrants that all information provided in connection with Hexagon Club Family enrollment and management is accurate, complete, and truthful.
7. RCBC will notify eligible nominated members using their registered contact details. The Bank shall not be liable for any failure of notification due to outdated, incorrect, or inactive information. Any Supplementary Member may at any time opt out of participation in the program through authorized RCBC channels, resulting in their removal from the program and the cessation of Hexagon Club Family Program shared benefits.
8. By participating in the Hexagon Club Family program, the Primary Member and Supplementary Members consent to the processing and sharing of their names, account numbers, and "Hexagon Club Status" information among each other and within RCBC and its offices, branches, subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, representatives and authorized third parties for the purposes of program administration, eligibility validation, and benefit allocation. This data sharing is a necessary component of the program linkage, and the Primary Member represents and warrants that they have secured the necessary consent and waiver of bank secrecy and data privacy laws from nominees regarding the disclosure and processing of bank information prior to nomination and during membership. All bank information disclosures and data processing remain subject to RCBC's policies and applicable banking laws, including, without limitation, secrecy of deposits and data privacy.
9. Hexagon Club Family subscription shall automatically terminate if the Primary Member becomes ineligible, is downgraded, fails to maintain required ADB, closes qualifying accounts, or voluntarily cancels membership, with notification to the Primary Member. Consequently, all Supplementary Members shall be removed from the program and shall cease to receive any Hexagon Club Family benefits.
10. Only benefits expressly designated by RCBC as shareable under Hexagon Club Family may be extended to Supplementary Members. RCBC reserves the sole and absolute right to determine, modify, suspend, or withdraw such benefits at any time, with notice to the Primary Member.
11. Any breach of the terms and conditions of the account or Supplemental/Main Hexagon Club, or material misstatement, omission, or misrepresentation by the Primary or Supplemental Members may result in the revocation of Hexagon Club Family subscription. The members shall indemnify and hold RCBC free and harmless for disputes among the members regarding confidentiality of bank deposits, data processing, nomination decisions, benefit allocation, or relationship status.
12. RCBC reserves the right to amend, suspend, or terminate these Supplemental T&Cs at any time, subject to applicable laws and regulations. RCBC's determination on any matter relating to Hexagon Club Family enrollment, nomination, eligibility, or benefits shall be final and binding.
